

Not just second hand smoke

Growing up in a Holocaust Survivor
Family

MILLION DOLLAR BUBBE

A Unique Opportunity to Attend
"The Movie Event"
that you don't have to attend!

*Instead of going to one more event,
please consider making an additional contribution to the Robison Jewish Health Center,*

My relationship with my parents was both loving and challenging.

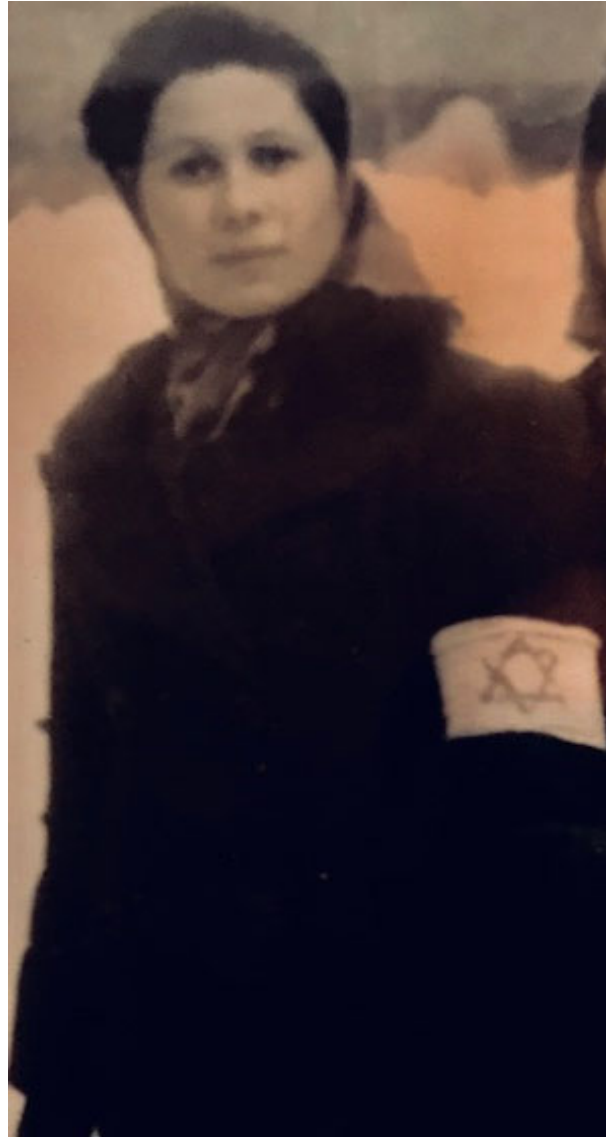

Henry & Rachel

Hitler and Eichman

Rachel in 1939 prior to enslavement

Jewish Businesses were first identified and then destroyed.

The Burning of a Synagogue on Kristalnacht

Prisoners in Buchenwald

Rachel, Sarah and Friends as pre-school teachers

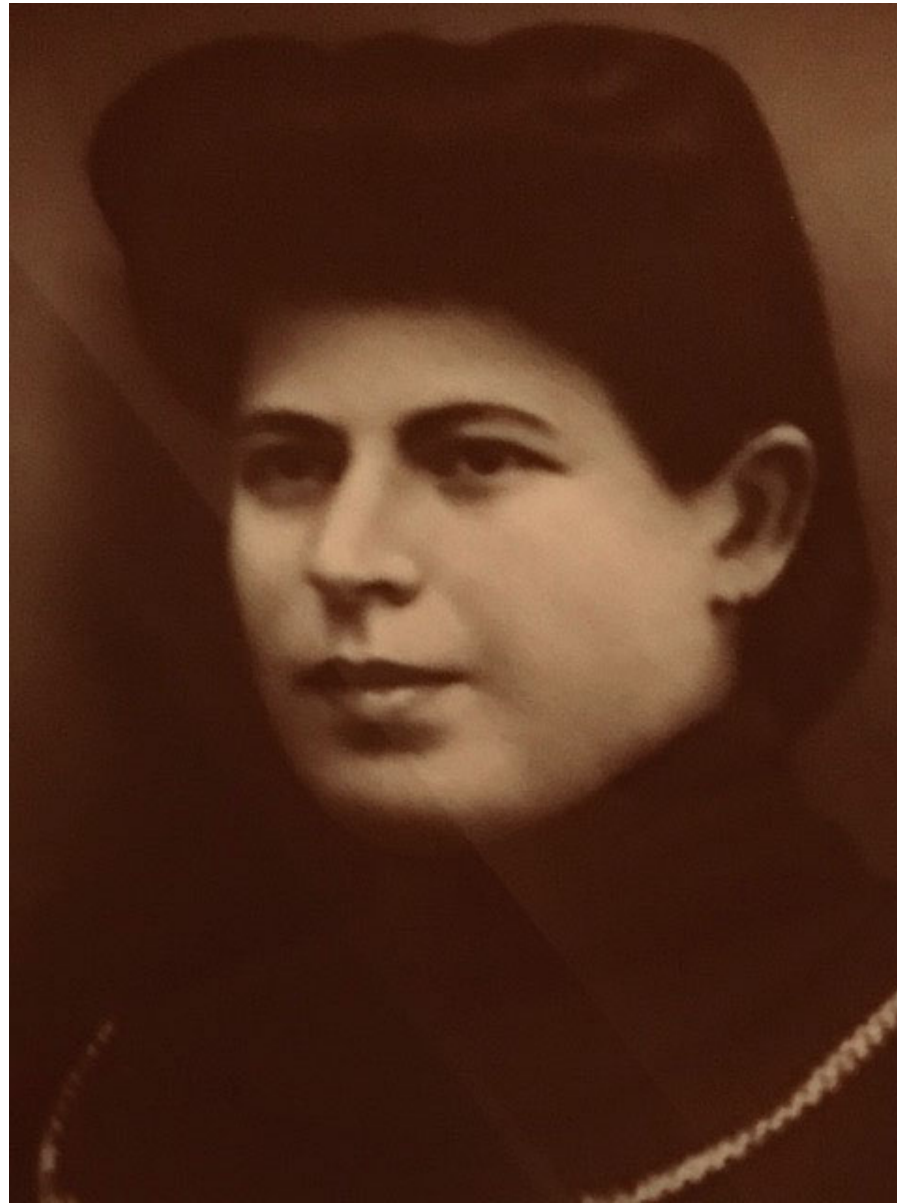

Of these 3 young women 2 survived the war.

It is the summer of 1937. They love each other. He stands astride the bicycle. He is slim and in shirt-sleeves. He is at ease. She wears a pretty dress, blue perhaps. She sits on the crossbar. His arms are around her. They are relaxed and smiling. He is 21. She is 19, perhaps. Are they still courting? Perhaps they are already married and enjoying a peaceful Saturday afternoon. Is she pregnant yet? Their baby would be a girl named Bluma. She would be their little flower.

My sister Libbie was born in a DP camp

Ita Horowitz Fuks – Grandmother, Hassidic Wife, Lost in Auschwitz

My Paternal Grandfather was killed under similar circumstances.

Cousin Jack survived Auschwitz

Chotcha Regina & Uncle Abe

Rachel, Regina & Morris Liberation Seder

Uncle Morris in Israel

Survivors and Americans

What can be learned?

- What happens to a country that has great power and no ethics?
- What happens to a people who have strong ethics and no power?
- How can a nation heal after a profound wrong has been committed?
- How can people heal after surviving atrocity?